LABOR WOMEN ON WAY TO CAPITAL

Ten countries are sending women delegates to the International Congress of Working Women, to be held in Washington, October 22.

The women representatives are on their way to the Capital and will arrive here within a week. Mrs. Raymond Robins, president of the National Women's Trade Union League, told members of the Washington committee of the league at a meeting held last night in headquarters of the organization, 1423 New York avenue northwest.

Countries represented in the congress will be Great Britain, France, Belgium, Switzerland, Italy, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Argentina, Uruguay and Canada.

To Provide Interpreters.

Local committees to provide interpreters for the foreign delegates, together with women to act as guides, serve in information bureaus and to furnish hospitality for the guests are being planned.

Offers of assistance have been received from Miss Alice Deal, of the High School Teachers' Union; Miss Nora James, of the Women's Bureau of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing; Miss Jessie Haver, of the Consumers' League, and other delegates and individuals.

Arrangements were made last night for a meeting to be held under the auspices of the league within the near future for the purpose of discussing with women employees of Washington stores the minimum wage award of $16.50 a week, which goes into effect November 1.

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

News of the Diplomats and of Official Society.

THE new minister of Uruguay, Senator Varela, and Senora de Varela, who are now at the Lafayette Hotel, have leased Mrs. Josiah Pierce's residence, 1325 Massachusetts avenue, and will take possession about November 1.

Mrs. Pierce will probably be away from Washington this winter. Her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vinton Pierce, will spend the winter in the South, and Josiah Pierce, Jr., her eldest son, is established in the West.

The Minister of Salvador and Mme. Sol have gone to New York and are staying at the Astor Hotel.

Don Diego Manuel Chamorro, minister of Nicaragua, is in New York for a brief stay and is stopping at the Waldorf-Astoria.

Samuel Abbot Magin, recently appointed American Minister to Bolivia, is in Washington for a visit prior to starting for his new post and is staying at the Shoreham. Mrs. Magin will join him here next week.

Justino de Montalvan, who will be chargé d'affaires of the legation of Portugal in the absence of the minister, Viscount d'Alite, will arrive in Washington tomorrow. Viscount d'Alite is in New York and will sail for Portugal some time this month. He has represented his country at Washington since 1902, and has been dean of the corps of foreign ministers for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Langhorne have taken the residence, 1225 Eighteenth street, and will be established there for the winter. The house was occupied last year by the members of the Swedish High Commission.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Lindaberry, of New Jersey, who are at the Shoreham for a week, gave a dinner there last evening. Their guests were Lieut. Gen. Enoch L. Crowder, Judge Elbert H. Gary, Major and Mrs. Reed, and Charles MacVeigh.

Gregory Zolowsky, counselor of the Russian embassy, and Mme. Zolowsky are at the St. Regis Hotel, New York, for a brief stay.

Judge Sloborg at Lake Placid.

After spending a few days at the Greenbrier, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., recuperating from a recent illness, Judge Eric Sloborg has gone to Lake Placid, N. Y., to remain through October.

Mr. and Mrs. Maitland Dwight have taken for the winter the residence, 2008 Hilyer Place, which was occupied last season by James G. Blaine, 2d. Mr. Dwight is an official of the State Department.

Mrs. James Lee Marshall will give a luncheon next Tuesday at the Cafe St. Mark's in honor of her cousin, Miss Abigail Harvey, and of Miss Lucy Plather and her bridesmaids. A few of Miss Plather's friends who are not in the bridal party will also be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Richardson, whose marriage took place in Newport recently, will divide their time this winter between New York and Washington. Mrs. Richardson was formerly Miss Charlotte Peil.

The marriage of Miss Katherine DuBoise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. DuBoise, to John Blakes Gordon, will take place tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. DuBoise, 2902 Q street. Only members of the two families will attend the ceremony, which will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Charles Wood, pastor of the Church of the Covenant, and the wedding will be followed by a small reception.

Miss Camille DuBoise will be her sister's maid of honor and Miss Louise DuBoise, a younger sister, will be bridesmaid. Mr. Gordon's brother, Erskine Gordon, will be best man. Both the bridegroom and his brother saw service in France and Erskine Gordon was several times decorated for gallantry in action.

Among the guests from out of town here for the wedding are Miss DuBoise's aunt, Mrs. L. D. DuBoise and Mrs. Welburn DuBoise, of Athens, Ga. Mr. Gordon is the son of William A. Gordon, of Georgetown. He is in business here and has taken an apartment in Fifteenth street near Columbia Road for his bride.

Mrs. Richard H. Chinn has sold her residence, 1145 Connecticut avenue, and will be at 1329 Eighteenth street for the winter.

Mrs. C. E. Barnard, of England, has taken the residence, 1401 Twenty-first street for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Brown have leased their residence, 3010 O street, to Mr. Charles H. Herter, who will occupy it this winter.

Miss Elizabeth Campbell, daughter of Congressman and Mrs. Philip Pitt Campbell, who will be married on October 18 to Capt. Burdette Shields Wright, Air Service, U. S. A., will give her sister, Miss Dorothy Campbell, maid of honor. Miss Helen Campbell, another sister, will be bridesmaid, and there will be three other attendants, Miss Alene Wright, of Louisville, Ky., sister of the bridegroom; Miss Marjorie Stebbins, Casanova, N. Y., and Miss Elizabeth Beach, of Washington.

The best man and ushers will be chosen from among the Capt. Shields' brother officers in the air service. He is stationed in Washington, and his bride will make their home here for the present.

Mrs. McLean to Return.

Mrs. Edward McLean, who, with Mrs. John McLean, is at Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, will return to Washington next week to spend the season.

Col. Robert M. Thompson has joined Mrs. Thompson at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

Mrs. Arthur G. Duncan, wife of Captain Duncan, who is stationed in the office of the quartermaster general, has arrived from San Francisco, accompanied by her two children. Mrs. Duncan will make her home in Washington for the winter.

Among the box holders for the second concert of the Washington Philharmonic Orchestra given yesterday afternoon at the Knickerbocker Theater were Congressman and Mrs. Samuel J. Nichols, Congressman and Mrs. J. Jacobs, of Sparanabur, S. C.; Rear Admiral and Mrs. Baird, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Adams and Barry Bulkeley.

Give Theater Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Bourne entertained a number of young people last evening at the Garrick Theater, followed by a supper at St. Mark's, in honor of Miss Catherine Bachs, of New York, and Miss Clara Semario, of Paris, who are the guests for a week of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rosseter.

The Kappa Alpha Fraternity, of George Washington University, will give a tea at his home, 2511 Fourteenth street, in honor of the president and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. William Miller Collier, tomorrow afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock. Among other guests will be the deans of the various departments of the university, Frank Myers, assisted by a committee including Robert Foote, Hugh Duffey and Russell Hollingsworth, will receive the guests. All the fraternities and sororities of the university have been invited, and it is expected by everyone that the entertainment will be a great success.

The marriage of Miss Golda Virginia Dearnont and William Dorsey Burdette took place Wednesday morning at St. Albans Chapel.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Ernest Dearnont, wore a dark blue traveling suit, embroidered with a large picture hat of black velvet, and carried a bouquet of Bride's roses.

Mrs. John C. Stuart, formerly of Virginia, but now of Washington, was matron of honor and wore a gown of dark blue satin and flowered georgette, with hat to match.

The best man was Bryan Morgan, a cousin of the bride, also of Virginia. Immediately after the ceremony a luncheon was given for the bride party by Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stuart, after which Mr. and Mrs. Burdette left for a motor trip North.

They will be at home after October 15 at Rosemont, Va.

The evening before the wedding a reception was given in honor of the bride and bridegroom by Mr. and Mrs. Stuart at their home, the Winston, Mr. and Mrs. Dearnont are both from Boyce, Clarke county, Va.
